

2019-21 MONITOR REVIEW SHEET
Prepared by Jon M. Levinson, Secretary-Rules Editor

SITUATION	MONITOR USE PERMITTED	MONITOR USE REQUIRED	MUST HONOR A COACH REQUEST FOR REVIEW	TIME LIMIT TO PENALIZE/CORRECT USING A MONITOR REVIEW
Determine whether a common foul occurred.	No	No	No
Determine whether basket interference or goaltending occurred.	No	No	No
Determine whether a violation other than 11-2.1.e and 11-3.1.a.2 occurred.	No	No	No
Determine who shall attempt free throws if uncertain.	Yes	No	No	When wrong person attempts, error must be recognized and corrected during the first dead ball after the clock has been started properly.
Determine the location of the secondary defender and offensive player relative to the restricted area and/or lower defensive box when a foul is called for illegal contact.	Yes, in the last two minutes of the fourth period or last two minutes of any extra period(s).	No	No	Before the ball becomes live following the foul.
Permitting the assessment of a player/substitute technical foul to a player who fakes being fouled.	Yes, but only during a review for a potential intentional or contact disqualifying foul.	No	No	Same as the review for the intentional or contact disqualifying foul.
Penalizing physical misconduct (taunting, baiting, etc.) by a player, substitute, or bench personnel.	Yes, but only during a review for a potential intentional or contact disqualifying foul.	No	No	Same as the review for the intentional or contact disqualifying foul.
Determine whether the player who was fouled on unsuccessful FG at or near 3-point line shall attempt 2 or 3 free throws.	Yes	No	No	Before the ball becomes live following the foul

SITUATION	MONITOR USE PERMITTED	MONITOR USE REQUIRED	MUST HONOR A COACH REQUEST FOR REVIEW	TIME LIMIT TO PENALIZE/CORRECT USING A MONITOR REVIEW
After a foul has been called, to determine on whom the foul is to be charged when there is uncertainty.	Yes	No	No	May correct a foul erroneously charged before the ball becomes live to begin the next period.
Which team caused the ball to go out of bounds when there is a deflection involving two or more players.	Yes, in last 2 minutes of fourth period or last 2 minutes in any extra period(s).	No	No	At the time of the out of bounds violation.
Determine whether the wrong player was permitted to attempt a free throw.	Yes	When necessary to determine the correctable error.	*When necessary to determine the correctable error.	Error must be recognized and corrected during the first dead ball after the clock has been started properly.
Determine whether a try for goal was a 2- or 3-point attempt.	Yes	When necessary to determine the correctable error.	*When necessary to determine the correctable error.	Officials must recognize prior to the second live ball: Media games: Review will take place at next electronic timeout; when no media timeouts remain in the fourth period, or in any extra period, officials will immediately review.
Determine whether a player was permitted to attempt a free throw at the wrong basket.	Yes	When necessary to determine the correctable error	*When necessary to determine the correctable error	Error must be recognized and corrected during the first dead ball after the clock has been started properly.
Determine whether a score was erroneously counted or canceled per 2-12.1.e.	Yes	When necessary to determine the correctable error.	*When necessary to determine the correctable error.	Must be recognized and corrected before the second live ball (Exception: 11-2.1.b.1).
Prevent or rectify a scoring mistake by the scorer.	Yes	When necessary to determine the mistake.	*When necessary to determine the mistake.	Until the referee approves the final score.

SITUATION	MONITOR USE PERMITTED	MONITOR USE REQUIRED	MUST HONOR A COACH REQUEST FOR REVIEW	TIME LIMIT TO PENALIZE/CORRECT USING A MONITOR REVIEW
Determine whether the game clock malfunctioned, or a timing mistake occurred in starting/stopping the game clock.	Yes	When necessary to determine the mistake.	*When necessary to determine the mistake.	No timing correction shall be carried over from one period to another, including extra periods. 1) During the first dead ball and before the ball is touched inbounds or out of bounds by a player other than the thrower-in 2) When the clock should have been continuously running, the mistake shall be corrected before the second live ball is touched inbounds or out of bounds by a player other than the thrower-in
Determine whether the shot clock malfunctioned, or a timing mistake occurred in failing to properly start, stop, set or reset the shot clock.	Yes	When necessary to determine the mistake.	*When necessary to determine the mistake.	The malfunction or mistake may only be corrected in the shot clock period in which it occurred.
Whether a shot-clock violation occurred before try is released.	Yes, but only when the try is successful.	Yes, when there are zeroes on the game clock; may at any other time during the game.	No	Before the ball becomes live following the successful try.
Whether a foul occurred before a shot-clock violation.	Yes	No	No	Before the ball becomes live following the stoppage.
When there is a reading of zeroes on the game clock at the end of any period, to determine whether a try for goal entering the basket was released prior to zeroes on the game clock.	Yes	Yes	No	At end of any period or extra period.

SITUATION	MONITOR USE PERMITTED	MONITOR USE REQUIRED	MUST HONOR A COACH REQUEST FOR REVIEW	TIME LIMIT TO PENALIZE/CORRECT USING A MONITOR REVIEW
When there is a reading of zeroes on the game clock at the end of any period, to determine whether a shot-clock violation occurred before the reading of zeroes on the game clock.	Yes	Yes	No	At end of any period or extra period.
When there is a reading of zeroes on the game clock at the end of any period, to determine whether a foul occurred before the reading of zeroes on the game clock.	Yes	Yes	No	At end of any period or extra period.
After a foul call, determine if an intentional or contact disqualifying foul occurred. May downgrade to personal foul. If review discloses no contact, foul call is reversed.	Yes	Yes	*Yes, for an intentional or contact disqualifying foul.	Must be reviewed during the dead ball following the foul call. When the ball becomes live, there shall be no review.

SITUATION	MONITOR USE PERMITTED	MONITOR USE REQUIRED	MUST HONOR A COACH REQUEST FOR REVIEW	TIME LIMIT TO PENALIZE/CORRECT USING A MONITOR REVIEW
Officials fail to observe an intentional or contact disqualifying foul or fight (not personal foul).	Yes	Yes	*Yes, for an intentional or contact disqualifying foul or fight.	1) When the game clock was stopped, it must be corrected during the first dead ball. 2) When the game clock was running, it must be corrected: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) During the first dead ball after the clock was properly stopped, or b) Before the second live ball when the ball was dead after a successful goal, but the clock continued to run (or when the clock stops in the last 59.9 seconds of the game only for the goal).
To determine whether a fight occurred and the individuals who participated or left the bench area.	Yes	Yes	*Yes	At any time during the game.

* If the appeal for a correctable error or to correct a timing mistake did not result in a change in the official's decision, or none of the fouls listed were assessed after review, charge a timeout to the team.