Instructions are located at www.gsoa.org. Please read through them to make sure you have the correct version of Silverlight on your computer.
Username: One of the emails listed in your BZ profile. (When we used ZW it was the first one listed, however, I think BZ switched the order in their profile so try every email you have to see which one it is).
Password: Your last name + 1234 ex: stigiano1234

Once you are logged into hudle, in the upper left-hand corner you can switch between Red River MBB Admin or Red River WBB Admin. Hover over Exchanges, click on Leagues. This will give you every game in the Red River Conference. Games start at the bottom. Once a game has been downloaded by a school, you will see a green arrow, click on the green arrow and the game will appear on the right side of the screen for your review.

Once you are logged into Krossover, in order to toggle between men's and women's you will need to click on the orange box in the upper right hand corner that says Coach Ann, it will drop down a white box showing the same thing. Click on it and it will switch you between men's and women's. You will then just click on the game you'd like to watch.
