Conference	Rule
Heartland	Media timeouts shall be utilized at ALL basketball games hosted by Heartland Conference member institutions. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. The length of each media timeout shall be 75 seconds (Note to media: 60-second commercial break with 15-second buffer). NOTE: For live television games, the length of each media timeout shall be 105 seconds (Note to media: 90-second commercial break with 15-second buffer). b. There shall be exactly seven (7) media timeouts in each game. c. Media timeouts will be taken at the first dead ball at or below the 5-minute mark in each period. When a team calls a timeout before the media timeout mark for that period, or calls a timeout that creates the first stoppage in play at or below the mark, the timeout shall be charged to the team and it will become that quarter's media timeout. d. The first team called timeout of the second half automatically shall become the length of a media timeout. This timeout does not replace the 5-minute media timeout in the period in which it is called. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The media timeouts are not to be replaced by any other timeouts (e.g., team-called timeouts, injury timeouts, officials' timeouts, intermissions will never take the place of media timeout). h. In addition to the media timeouts, in the new four-quarter format, teams will have four timeouts (three 30-second timeouts and one 60-second timeout). A team may use the 60-second timeout at the discretion of the coach during the first or second half of the game. Teams will be allowed to carry over three of those timeouts into the second half. Each team will be awarded one 30-second timeout in each overtime period, plus any unused timeouts remaining from the second half. i. During all timeouts, a warning horn to alert teams to prepare to resume play shall be sounded 15 seconds before the expiration of any charged or media timeout. A second game-clock horn shall be sounded at the end of any charged or media timeout and play shall resume immediately. j. The team that requests a charged timeout may shorten that timeout when the captain/head coach notifies the official of the team's intent.
